The United Arab Emirates (UAE) is a federation of the 7 emirates of Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Sharjah, Ras al-Khaimah, Ajman, Fujairah, and Umm al-Quwain. UAE is one of the most liberal countries in the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC), the economy of the UAE is the most diversified. A country that was once reliant on the export of its abundant oil reserves to run its economy, now draws merely a minority of its GDP from the same, having taken to business and tourism for its economic progress. So much so, that the UAE is one of the biggest business hubs in the world, with its most populous city Dubai acting as a premier global city and a preferred destination for entrepreneurs, investors and tourists alike. All this has been possible as a result of the market-friendly economic policies of the UAE government over the last 4 decades, fostering foreign investment, sustainable development, innovation, and research.

Where else can you think of that has such a strong business base for such a relatively small country? With easy geographical access to the tiger economies of the East and perfectly placed to access the growth and cash rich economies of the gulf as well as being by far the most live able place in the Middle East and with no tax, low rents, a free lifestyle and great weather, UAE cities makes the perfect choice. Living and opening a business in the UAE has many prospects. All sum up to great opportunities for investing: 0% corporate and personal income tax, clear procedures in setting up the business, absence of bureaucracy, reliable and secure banking system, stable economic and political surrounding

Doing business in the UAE

UAE is a developed economy that offers a favorable business environment, world-class infrastructure, nifty amenities, flexible government norms, and efficient quality services to all incoming businesses, irrespective of their country of origin. Setting up a business in UAE is a futuristic and insightful business decision for the following reasons:

- The UAE is a growing and diversified market with high global demand for imports and exports, and vast opportunities for suppliers
- The country bears a strategic geographic location in a resource-rich region
- The UAE has easy access and global connectivity with over 90 airlines and 170 shipping lines
- Above all, the commerce in the UAE is based on free trade barriers (no quotas or exchange controls)
- The country levies no tax on personal, capital or corporate income, and allows 100% repatriation of capital and profits There are no currency restrictions on the exchange of money
- The energy supply is abundant and low-priced
- The populace in the country is educated and skilled, so the place is favorable from the standpoint of hiring workforce – not that there are any restrictions on hiring foreign nationals
- The transportation system throughout the UAE is well developed
- The infrastructural advancement in the UAE is no secret – its plush real estate, state-of-the-art telecommunication systems, and dependable power supply & other utilities are a fertile breeding ground for business entities.
